Memorable dining in PORTO, PORTUGAL

Enjoy a superb Dinner for Two at Traça and The Orangerie at The Yeatman

Valid to 5/31/24; subject to availability. Reservations required.

You simply can't travel to Portugal without visiting Porto. According to Lonely Planet, "Porto opens up like a pop-up book from the banks of the Rio Douro. Edgy-yet-opulent Porto entices with its historic center, sumptuous food and wine, and charismatic locals." Here's your chance to bid on two of the very best dining adventures you could ever hope to experience:

In Porto, the happening Traça is tucked in a 17th-century building that once housed a pharmacy. Guests travel back in time as they savor true traditional Portuguese soul food: T-bone steaks, slow-roast kid goat, confit of veal shank with vodka and the like.

Just across the Douro in Vila Nova de Gaia, you'll find the Relais & Chateaux hotel, The Yeatman. Striving to deliver Porto's most inspiring dining experience, The hotel's 2 Michelin  restaurant, The Orangerie, offers imaginative cuisine with the traditional flavors of Portugal are interpreted and presented with contemporary flair. The menu features an impressive range of fish and a diversity of regional specialties. As a bonus, guests discover an extraordinary panorama of the River Douro and the historic center of Porto from Dick's Bar & Bistro where you'll enjoy a glass of wine or cocktail before or after dinner. A wine supplement is also included with dinner.

Hotel Torre di Cala Piccola – ARGENTARIO,
TUSCANY, ITALY

3-Day, 2-Night stay

Plus: Daily breakfast, room upgrade at arrival upon availability, early check-in or late check-out upon availability, aperitif at sunset in the Garden Lounge Bar, 20% discount on beauty treatments and massages in the wellness center

Valid to 5/20/24. Some blackout dates apply; subject to availability.

One of a kind. At the farthest spot on the Argentario, high above the sea and in front of the Isola del Giglio and the Isola di Giannutri, one comes upon the Hotel Torre di Cala Piccola - a hotel with a fascinating story and its own unique personality. Whoever sojourns here has this in mind: to seek peace and quiet and to rediscover a discreet privacy and total tranquility that today seems to belong to another age. Discover a 360°-view that takes in the whole of the Argentario. A sight that captivates the senses and hypnotizes the mind. Travel + Leisure says, "There's no better place from which to watch the sun set." This same hotel that conquered the hearts and minds of Liz Taylor and Richard Burton in the 1960s will also capture yours.
